

ERD – Entity Relationship Diagram

1. Purpose

The ERD represents the major data entities required by the Cravio platform and the relationships between them.

2. Major Entities

- Customer
- Address
- Cart
- Order
- Restaurant
- Menu Item
- Order Item
- Payment
- Delivery
- Delivery Partner
- Review

3. Key Relationships

- One Customer can have multiple Orders.
- One Customer can have multiple Addresses.
- One Restaurant can have multiple Menu Items.
- One Order can contain multiple Order Items.
- One Order has a Payment.
- One Order may have a Delivery.
- One Delivery can be assigned to a Delivery Partner.
- Customers can submit Reviews for Restaurants.

4. Data Flow

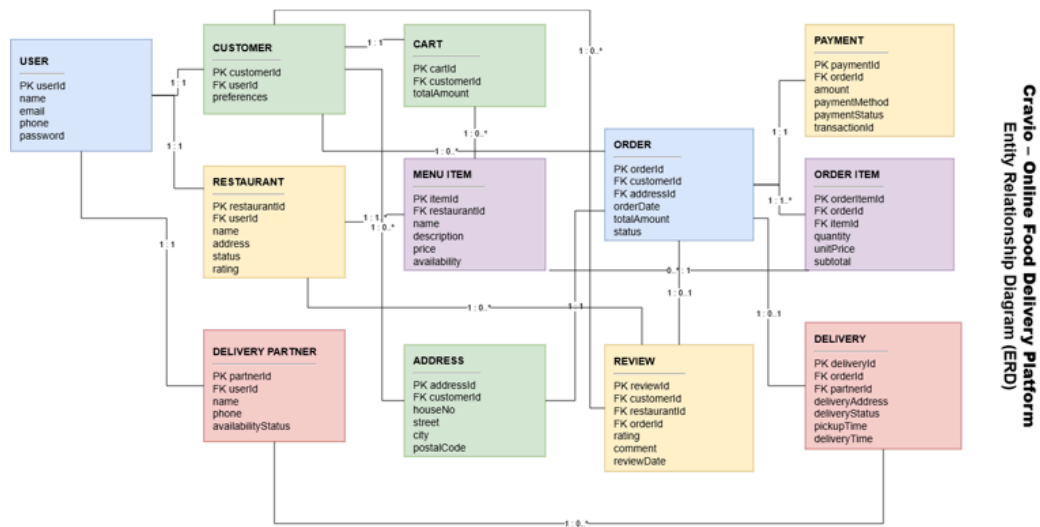

Customer → Order → Order Item → Menu Item → Restaurant

Order → Payment

Order → Delivery → Delivery Partner

Customer → Address

Customer → Review ← Restaurant

5. BA Perspective

The ERD helps the Business Analyst communicate the required data structure and relationships to developers and database teams.